

Philosophy

Athletics are an important part of the Piqua Catholic community. We believe that God has given us many talents and athletics is a way to share some of these talents. We believe that through athletic competition, one has the opportunity to acquire appreciation of a particular sport as well as the chance to develop and experience camaraderie, teamwork, discipline, sacrifice and good physical health. All of these help to make an individual more well rounded, happier, and successful.

Sportsmanship

Student athletes who are good sports are positive role models within our school and the community at large. A good sport knows that athletic competition builds character and shapes life-time attitudes. You in turn, experience additional educational and leadership benefits that come from participation in sports.

Integrity, fairness and respect are inherent principals of good sportsmanship which must be displayed by athletes, coaches, and parents. With them, the spirit of competition thrives, fueled by honest rivalry, courteous relations and graceful acceptance of the results.

As an athlete at Piqua Catholic School, your sportsmanship goals will include:

- Developing a sense of dignity under all circumstances.
- Respecting the rules of the games, the officials who administer the rules, and their decisions.
- Respecting opponents as fellow students, and acknowledging them for striving to do their best while you seek your best at the same time.
- Refraining from engaging in all types of disrespectful behavior, specifically taunting, trash talking and other forms of intimidation.
- Looking at athletic participation as a potentially beneficial learning experience, whether you win or lose.
- Educate other students and fans to understand the rules of the game, and the value of sportsmanship.

You are a spokesperson for Piqua Catholic School when you represent us in athletic competition. Your actions are viewed by family and friends, opposing fans, the local community and the media. Your display of good sportsmanship will show the most positive things about YOU and Piqua Catholic School, and hopefully, remind us all that in the end, sport is meant to be fun.
